Brown & Co appoints residential sales manager

Experienced property agent, Tim Wicks, has been appointed to the new position of residential sales manager at Brown & Co's flagship Norwich residential property office.

Born and bred in Norfolk, Tim attended Sir John Leman High School in Beccles before gaining a Diploma in Valuation and Estate Agency, at Norwich City College, in 1986.

The same year he started his career in residential estate agency in Lowestoft, before moving to the Norwich office of a national firm in 1988. Here Tim broadened his property experience working in the commercial sector and advising on investments.

For the past twelve years Tim has worked in estate agency and has built up extensive residential property valuation experience in Norwich and surrounding areas.

Tim (40) lives in Norwich and is a keen golfer.
