Brown & Co expand King's Lynn land agency team

Land agent Mary Ralph MRICS (nee Hecks) has joined property and business consultants Brown & Co's expanding King's Lynn based team.

With an honours degree in geography from Exeter University, Mary went on to gain a Masters in Rural Estate Management from the Royal Agricultural College. She moved to Norfolk to join the Norwich office of a national firm of land agents and went on to qualify in 2003.

She joins Brown & Co with six years experience of working with clients throughout Norfolk. Mary's particular expertise lie in estate management – with a focus on maximising returns from rural property assets – compensation claims and rural property valuation.

Mary (29), lives near Fakenham. A keen sportswoman, she plays for Dereham Hockey Club and is a member of the club's management committee.
