Chris Purllant joins Brown & Co's

Land agent Chris Purllant BSc MRICS has joined property and business consultants Brown & Co's expanding King's Lynn rural team.

Born in to a North Cambridgeshire farming family, Chris attended King's School Peterborough before gaining a BSc (Hons) degree in Rural Enterprise and Land Management at Harper Adams Agricultural College, in Shropshire. On graduating, Chris returned to East Anglia and joined Cheffins. Having qualified as a chartered surveyor in 1999, he gained membership of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers (CAAV) in December.

With ten years experience of land valuation, estate management, machinery auctioneering and general farm business management, Chris has joined Brown & Co's King's Lynn land agency team led by Jim Major.

Chris (32) lives at Welney, in Norfolk, where he has recently completed a self-conversion of a 200-year old barn. A keen hockey player, he has competed at national league level. When time permits, Chris enjoys shooting and helping out on the family farm.
